

Furley Road, Peckham

£1,100,000

Exceptionally charming three bedroom Georgian house of 1321 square feet, excluding basement and loft areas. Welcome features are in their many; these include sash windows, high ceilings. wide stripped floorboards, pitch pine doors, big proportions and a wood-burning stove.

This is a special and generous period home which has been improved, well-maintained and enjoyed by the current owners for two decades!

You have two large adjoining reception rooms and an independent and large entertaining-friendly kitchen plus a downstairs w.c. to the ground floor, and three double bedrooms and a smart bathroom to the first floor.

A low-maintenance paved and part-walled 'city' garden - with tropical and native planting - completes the package.

Your new home is located on a residential street, in a friendly neighbourhood of longstanding residents, equidistant from Peckham Rye and Queen's Road Peckham stations (both are Zone 2 and on the London
